EPSILON SIGMA PHI COMMITTEE GUIDELINES
The National ESP Board of Epsilon Sigma Phi shall designate committees to carry out the organization’s activities. Ad hoc Committees and special task forces may be appointed as needs arise with approval of the National ESP Board. The Second Vice President shall make committee appointments and notify appointees as soon as possible after the appoint is made. The organization’s goal is to have two Representatives from each geographic region, plus the Chair, on each of ESP’s eight National Standing Committees with at least one of the members on each of the committee being a life member. But, should the organization not receive a minimum of two qualified nominations for each of the National ESP Committees per region, committee slots will be filled by nominations from any region of the country. Additionally, the goal is to have no more than one (1) member from the same chapter appointed to serve on the same committee in any given year excluding the Chair.

All persons appointed to a committee shall be chapter members and willing to devote time and effort to committee activities. A member of the National ESP Board shall serve as committee Chairperson. New committee members shall begin their term of service at the National ESP Conference in the year their appointment is made.

Description of committee tasks:

Global Relations Committee: works to support international work of ESP members and the extension system to build the capacity of extension professionals to help local communities better understand their communities in a global context.

Scholarship, Grants and Recognition Committee: Develops membership benefits programs, reviews scholarship and mini grant applications and nominations for National Friend of Extension recognition.

Marketing Committee: Advises the National ESP Board on strategies for marketing ESP to potential members and to promote the ESP organization and image.

Membership Recruitment and Retention Committee: Works with chapters to recruit and retain membership.

Professional Development Committee: Plans the National ESP Conference, selects presenters for concurrent sessions at National ESP Conference, plans and conducts distance learning experiences and related activities.
Public Issues Committee: Follows public issues related to Extension personnel benefits (i.e. Federal Retirement), makes input into Public Issues Leadership Development Conference (PILD) and other public issues related to developing support for Extension.

Resource Development and Management Committee: Works on the National budget proposal, implements plans for increasing financial resources of the Organization and related financial issues.

Chapter Relations Committee: Made up of the four Regional Vice-Presidents and the National Executive Director as an ex-officio member, chaired by the National 2nd Vice President, the committee is responsible for creating a working relationship between the chapters and the National Board. The committee is responsible to assist chapter leaders and to provide leadership training for chapter officers.

Term of Membership: Committee members are appointed for a term of two years. Members eligible for appointment must have the recommendation of their chapter, usually the chapter president of their designee. Committee members may receive an additional appointment for a total of two two-year appointments. The reappointment to a committee can be done by filing a Committee Re-appointment application on the Website under the Forms Tab located on the menu on the Home Page of the website. Committee recruitment should begin at JCEP Leadership Conference, and during Committee Meetings at the National ESP Conference.

New Committee appointment or Committee Reappointment applications are due from interested members along with recommendations from chapters or Committee Chairs to the Second Vice-President by April 1. Use the New Committee Appointment, the Committee Reappointment Application and the Chapter Presidents recommendation for Committee Member Appointment are all found on the Website under the Forms Tab located on the Home Page of the ESP website. All National Committees shall report to the National ESP Board and make recommendations for National ESP Board and National ESP Council action.

Committee Expectations:
A national committee undertaking a special project may appoint a sub-committee, if necessary. The sub-committee chair must come from the "parent" committee. Additional committee members should be selected from the same state as the sub-committee chair.

Since committee business is generally conducted by e-mail, or online conference call, attendance at committee meetings in a central location is not required by committee members. Committee member attendance at the National ESP Conference is encouraged as time is provided for committee meetings during the conference. Committee members attending the National Conference, and who attend their national committee meeting(s) and also their regional meeting while at conference are eligible for a stipend the amount determined by the national board. The Committee Member stipends are to assist with the cost of attending the conference. Members wishing to receive the reimbursement will be required to file a Request for National Conference Reimbursement which is found on the website under the Reimbursement Tab.
Committee activities are reported in writing* Strategic Action Plans of Work – using the prescribed National Epsilon Committee Strategic Action Plan of Work forms found on the Google Drive at the address provided by the National Office. The annual report of committee activities is included in the full length annual report which is given to the National Council Delegates and it is posted on the website.

Copies of committee correspondence should be posted in the Google Drive Committee Folders directory then in the folder for the committee and the current year. The Committee Chairs are also required to prepare an article (approximately 250 words) for using in the popular annual report which is distributed to all members attending the annual meeting and it is published on the website under the Reports Tab.

Committees desiring to publish a brochure, etc. in promotion of Epsilon Sigma Phi and/or its programs, must submit all information in the form of a proposal, including a mock-up and budget to the National ESP Board for consideration of funding. All requests for funding must be submitted to the RDM Committee Chair by no later than May for consideration in the budget for the following year.

Epsilon Sigma Phi International Fellowship/Scholarship

Epsilon Sigma Phi in partnership with the USAID’s Feed the Future Innovation Lab for Sustainable Intensification (SIIL) is looking to contribute to the further education or professional development of extension professionals living and working in the SIIL countries.

The goal of the scholarship/fellowship is to help individuals with their graduate education, or to participate in experiential extension opportunities in the United States. In discussions with SIIL project director, Dr. Vara Prasad, at Kansas State University, and Mike McGuirr from International Programs at USDA, they thought the greatest impact ESP could make would be through an investment in the researchers and Extension professionals who are working in the countries with current connections. The SIIL efforts in the two countries (Senegal and Cambodia) have been identified as pilot counties for this scholarship program. Works involves Extension initiatives in agriculture, family, nutrition, and youth.

The committee recommended and the ESP Board approved to support Extension professionals in the two target countries to continue their graduate education, or to participate in experiential extension opportunities in the United States.

In the next phase of ESPs work in the aforementioned counties, the Global Relations committee will develop and broker exchange opportunities for Extension professionals from the target countries, and also to develop mechanisms to provide international training/consulting opportunities for ESP members through SIIL. The expected timing for this project will be for funding to be secured and the award will be made in the fall 2018.

Meritorious Support Service Recognition (Chapter only)

This nationally authorized recognition is designed to pay tribute to the many staff in our system that, over time, have shown support for the mission, program, and professional staff of Cooperative Extension. Such persons include secretaries, program assistants, camp directors, motor pool managers, public distribution clerks, print shop operators, budget analysts, computer operators and others. Since each Chapter designs the specific criteria for this recognition, there is considerable flexibility in how a Chapter uses this recognition.

- National guidelines allow each Epsilon Sigma Phi chapter to present several recognitions each year.
- Specific criteria for nomination, balloting, and presentation are developed by each chapter.
• An editable/ printable Chapter Recognition Certificate can be prepared and signed by chapter leadership. ESP certificate seals are available for purchase from the ESP Executive Director using the ESP Supply Order Form.

Retiree Service Recognition (Chapter only)
• Designed to recognize continuing contributions and outstanding service by retired Extension professionals.
• National guidelines provide each chapter with the opportunity to present one Retiree Service Recognition annually.
• The process for nominations and selections are to be developed by each chapter.
• An editable/ printable Chapter Recognition Certificate can be prepared and signed by chapter leadership. ESP certificate seals are available for purchase from the ESP Executive Director using the ESP Supply Order Form.

25 Year Tenure Recognition – (Chapter only)
• Epsilon Sigma Phi chapters have recognized tenure levels for Extension professionals for many years. The 25-year milestone has been almost universally spotlighted, and has been sanctioned by the National ESP Board as one worthy of certificate recognition.
• This recognition is for 25 years of Extension service (not to include other governmental (Civil Service) employment and military service time, as do the USDA tenure recognition also available to Chapter Extension employees).
• National guidelines allow each Epsilon Sigma Phi chapter to nominate as many candidates as who qualify for this tenure level each year. Recipients must be current ESP members whose dues are paid for the previous year and the current year (by February 1).
• An editable/ printable Chapter Recognition Certificate can be prepared and signed by chapter leadership. ESP certificate seals are available for purchase from the ESP Executive Director using the ESP Supply Order Form.
Role of the Membership Recruitment and Retention Committee:
“Members are hard to get, but easy to lose!” Members are important and essential to the life of any organization and especially so to Epsilon Sigma Phi. Epsilon Sigma Phi has much to offer Extension professionals. Epsilon Sigma Phi plays an equal role with the other professional Extension Associations (National Association of County Agricultural Agents (NACAA), National Association of Extension 4-H Agents (NAE4-HA), Association of Natural Resource Extension Professionals (ANREP), National Extension Association of Family & Consumer Science (NEAFCS), and the National Association of Community Development Extension Professionals (NACDEP). Epsilon Sigma Phi is an equal partner in the Joint Council of Extension Professionals (JCEP), and this affiliation enhances joint efforts. Epsilon Sigma Phi is a professional organization dedicated to fostering standards of excellence in the Extension System and developing the Extension profession and professional. ESP leads the Extension System in promoting and supporting professionalism in Extension.

• Each chapter’s membership recruitment and retention efforts can be evaluated using the Achievement in Chapter Membership recognition criteria. (See Chapter Recognition Program section of this handbook.)

IDENTIFYING NEW ESP ANNUAL MEMBERS
To identify potential ESP members chapter leadership should:
• Review their constitution and bylaws for membership categories and requirements.
• Work with their Extension administration at state, regional, and county levels to identify Extension professionals who qualify for membership.
• Be alert at all times for potential or prospective members—not just at the beginning of the membership year.
• Be aware that ESP membership is transferrable from one chapter to another. Identify Extension professionals who move to your state from another state to determine if there are already members of ESP. Work with the National ESP office to transfer membership.

RECRUITING NEW ESP ANNUAL MEMBERS:
Be visible:
• Develop newsletters and publicity regarding your ESP Chapter. Share ESP news with your administrators and through their usual communication channels to all Extension employees.

• Keep in touch with all retirees who are Life Members. Share information about chapter activities and get them involved.

To receive the read/write administrator rights the recipient must be trained in the use of the system prior to receiving the rights. Additional read only administrator privileges can be requested by the chapters.
- The National membership year is the calendar year, with the membership campaign beginning October 1st and running through February 1st.
- With the online system dues can be paid at any time, however, it is preferred that the dues still be submitted during the October 1 through August 31st timeframe.
- The Chapter Membership Chair, Chapter Treasurer and National Office working together will provide the most efficient dues collection and submission process.
GUIDELINES FOR SUPPORTING "AT-RISK" CHAPTERS
An "at-risk" chapter will likely have several of these circumstances:

- Dues not collected at the chapter level and not submitted to the National Office.
- No Chapter officers identified or Chapter officers not performing their duties.
- Annual meeting not held on a regular basis.
- Few or no new members initiated for several consecutive years.
- No chapter delegates at attending the National ESP Annual meeting for several consecutive years.
- Chapters will be assessed annually by the National Office and Regional Vice Presidents. The National Board will assign one or more board members (likely the Regional Vice President from the same region as the "at-risk" chapter, President-Elect, or Past President) to work with the “at-risk” chapter. The National Board member will contact the “at-risk” chapter and offer resources and support. If the response to the offer is positive, initial steps will be identified and the agreed upon plan will be documented in a follow-up letter. The National Board member may make an on-site visit if funds are available and the visit is deemed valuable.

An on-site visit may be an essential part of the support plan and would likely include:

- Meeting with a small group (4-7 people including current officers, recent officers, and others, including life members who appear to have a strong commitment to ESP) to assess the situation, to identify priority concerns, and to develop a strategy and plan.
- Meeting with Extension administrator (s) to apprise them of the situation and the emerging plans and to request their support.
- Identification of interim chapter leadership and their roles, including a designated liaison who will work with the National Board representative.
- An event to gather others who may be interested in ESP and can offer support to the strategy and plan for reinvigorating the ESP Chapter.
- Following the onsite visit:
  - Monthly communication will be maintained between the Chapter liaison and the National Board Member so the National ESP Office and Board can provide support as needed.
  - A National ESP Board member might attend the Chapter’s annual meeting if warranted and the funds are available. Any requests for funding or other needs of support for “at-risk” chapters should be brought to the National ESP Board. If funds are available they can be allocated. If not, the board will seek additional ways to support the chapter. Funds are available to assist Chapters at risk.
- If any of the other national Extension professional associations are also in an "at-risk" status, planning will include working with and coordinating efforts with the national officers of that/those association (s).

GUIDELINES FOR REACTIVATING AN INACTIVE CHAPTER
- The National ESP Office/Board Members will provide resources and support to a state wishing to reactivate their ESP chapter. The contact from the National...
Board will likely be the Regional Vice President from the region of the reactivating chapter, the National Vice President or Past President and the National ESP Executive Director.

Process and Procedures for Re-activation

The state wishing to reactivate their ESP chapter will identify an Extension professional who will be the initial contact/state liaison to work with the National ESP Office/Board Member(s) who have been identified to support the chapter during the reactivation process.

The National Office/Board Member(s) will provide to the state liaison ESP information such as the Constitution and Bylaws, ESP Handbook, and membership materials, as well as guidelines on chapter reactivation and will follow-up with a personal contact to the state liaison. The ESP Office/Board Member(s) may make an on-site visit to the state/state liaison if resources are available. If an onsite visit is made, it should include the following:

- Planning time with the state liaison
- Dialogue with the State Extension Director
- Planning time with a small group called together by the state liaison (to include
  - Extension faculty, staff, and administration from various job categories, retirees, and/or representatives from other Extension professional associations).
- A decision on whether or not to move forward with chapter reactivation immediately, at a future time or not at all.
- In the absence of an onsite visit, the above should be accomplished via other means, such as conference calls, online meetings of other means.
- If the decision is to move forward with chapter reactivation, a Chapter Organization Committee and Committee Chair should be identified and an organizational meeting date/time determined.
- The Committee should:
  - Review the National ESP handbook, constitution, bylaws, membership and dues requirements and processes
  - Review available chapter documents such as constitution, bylaws, etc.
  - Inform their Extension administration of chapter reactivation and gain their support
  - Request needed/useful resources from the ESP National Office such as their chapter’s previous membership list and Charter if local copy has been lost
  - Use National ESP website for membership and marketing resources
  - Draft a proposed program emphasis/focus for the first year-something with which prospective members will identify.
  - Keep potential members informed.
• Call an organizational meeting and invite participation of potential members.
• At the organizational meeting, review and discuss the proposed structure and program emphasis; make a decision -- to re-activate or not. If affirmative, elect an interim executive committee and decide membership criteria and dues.

• The National Office/Board Member (s) may assign an active ESP chapter to mentor the reactivating chapter. The National Board or mentoring chapter will communicate monthly with the Chapter Organization Committee Chair to provide continued support and to discuss and refine plans for the organizational meeting. They will also follow-up after the organizational meeting to hear of results and provide support.
• Continue phone contacts every three or four months and if resources exist, offer a chapter visit by a National Board member or designated representative for the first annual meeting following reactivation.
• Any requests for funding or other needs of support for chapter reactivation should be brought to the ESP National Board. If funds are available they can be allocated. If not, the board will seek additional ways to support the chapter.
• Draft a proposed structure--officers, committees, membership criteria, and dues.
• Throughout the chapter reactivation process, keep National ESP Office informed.
• Provide names, addresses, phone numbers of steering committee, interim executive committee, and elected officers so they receive appropriate communication.

The national organization will support the two planning team members financially by providing registration and travel expenses as outlined in the reimbursement section. The PILD Conference is a professional development opportunity available to any member of a JCEP affiliated organization. Scholarships are available from ESP for first time participants.

NATIONAL EPSILON SIGMA PHI DEVELOPMENT FUND

- The National ESP Council took steps in 1985 to establish a National Epsilon Sigma Phi Development Fund to foster even greater emphasis on "Partnership in Professional Excellence" among ESP members and the Cooperative Extension System as a whole.

- Epsilon Sigma Phi's most valuable asset is the quality of the Extension faculty/staff dedicated to serving people across the nation. Membership dues provide a base of financial support, within the chapters and nationally, for the ongoing operations of our organization. But, private tax-exempt contributions are necessary to provide an extra margin of excellence. After receiving legal counsel in 2002, the fund name of Foundation was dropped and Development was determined to be the more appropriate designation.

- Epsilon Sigma Phi has a commitment to future excellence through the Development Fund to:
  - Provide scholarships for professional development and graduate study to promote teaching and research excellence to members.
  - Provide mini-grants to chapters for professional development programs.
  - Recognize and reward Extension professionals who have demonstrated outstanding educational competences, professionalism and programming.
  - Publish the latest literature on professionalism and professional development opportunities for Extension faculty/staff.
  - Prepare resource materials that chapters can use to emphasize professionalism to prospective members.
  - Update and maintain a record of Epsilon Sigma Phi history and encourage chapters to implement Extension history projects.
  - To help reach a projected goal for an endowment fund of at least $500,000, each chapter is asked to name an Endowment Chair to give leadership to the local effort. The National Board named the Resource Development and Management Committee to give leadership and develop support materials for use with the chapter campaigns.
  - The Scholarship Auction at the National ESP Conference generates revenue for the Development Fund.
SECTION I
MARKETING COMMITTEE

- Submit an article for each publication of the ESP Connections Newsletter.
- Provide a web link to ESP Marketing Strategies.
- Annual Meeting responsibilities include hosting a Marketing table at the Poster Session with a marketing Poster. Members attending the Conference will also sell marketing items as provided by the National Office. The Marketing Committee will coordinate with the National Office to determine inventory, posters and additional supplies that will be required to sell at the Annual Conference.

MARKETING EPSILON SIGMA PHI
- "Marketing" Extension is being conducted in many states. The same principles of marketing Extension can be applied to "marketing" Epsilon Sigma Phi. Motivating members to "market" Epsilon Sigma Phi is necessary; the Membership Chair cannot do it alone. The Executive Committee and National Board members need to be involved and supportive of membership efforts. We embrace Vipperman's Four "C's" of Marketing as noted below:

- Commitment, Coordination, Communication, and Consistency--could be applied to Epsilon Sigma Phi. Commitment is essential from Epsilon Sigma Phi members to reach out to potential members. A successful membership campaign/drive cannot succeed without every member's enthusiastic support. Members and potential members need to know why Epsilon Sigma Phi exists and the benefits of belonging.

- Communication is necessary -- with members and non-members. The Membership Chair should discuss Epsilon Sigma Phi benefits with members, potential members, and former members to help them gain appreciation for the worth of Epsilon Sigma Phi. Enthusiasm and support will be directly related to the amount of information and feedback everyone receives. Communicate Epsilon Sigma Phi through newsletters and meetings. Give members opportunities to respond to your membership efforts. Social media is a new and effective manner to communicate with members. We encourage active participation on social media outlets around your ESP efforts. The National ESP Office maintains a Facebook Page that located at https://www.facebook.com/espnational/. We encourage every state Chapter to maintain an ESP Chapter Facebook Page and “Like” the ESP National Page. The Marketing Committee hosts a Facebook Liaison who is responsible for national posts, pictures, events, webinars, flyers or other news. Any item that needs posted can be emailed to this Liaison for a direct post to Facebook. This Liaison will continually be a member of the Marketing Committee but the person may change from year to year.

- Coordinate membership efforts. Once the membership plan has been developed, ensure that the momentum persists. Hold Membership Committee meetings regularly-- by telephone, by conference call, in person (if possible), or by mail if there is no other alternative. Get regular reports from your committee members.

- Consistency in achieving goals plays an important role in membership. Don't let down your efforts! Anticipate peaks and valleys. Identify specific activities that are manageable during your busy times. List other activities that can be addressed during slow times (if that ever happens in Extension!) Consistency is a critical factor in achieving marketing success, just as in achieving membership success. According to Vipperman, "It's essential to prepare your people for marketing. It's a team task." The same applies to membership. It is essential to prepare your members for marketing membership, for it, too, is a team task.

Three tools are often useful to chapters when marketing Epsilon Sigma Phi:

1. a promotional brochure for your chapter (see "EPSILON SIGMA PHI, (2) The Cooperative Extension Professionals' Organization")
2. a chapter newsletter or chapter
handbook for all members, and (3) a membership roster of your chapter members. Many chapters produce two to four-chapter newsletters each year and most have chapter officer handbooks.

BUILDING STRONG EPSILON SIGMA PHI CHAPTERS
Epsilon Sigma Phi is both an honorary and educational organization, with about 5,000 committed career professionals, representing 41 annual state/territory chapters.

The strength of the national Extension Professionals’ Organization rests largely on the strength of each respective chapter. Epsilon Sigma Phi is the only Extension-wide professional organization. Its primary purpose is that of building and maintaining a strong profession.

The National ESP Board of Directors has identified the following factors that seem to contribute to the success of strong chapters.

This list could serve as a basis for chapter assessment by your board of directors and committees:

- Elected officers, who are imaginative, committed, dedicated, and hard working in support of Epsilon Sigma Phi.
- National ESP Board members who provide strong two-way communication between the chapter members and the chapter board.
- Chapter goals that are carefully defined, planned, evaluated, and updated by the National ESP Board members annually, and take into account the National Epsilon Sigma Phi goals and objectives.
- Annual committees that make use of the national Chapter Handbook. (Each chapter officer should have a copy, and relevant pages distributed to appropriate committees.)
- Programs that emphasize recognition of outstanding leadership and program accomplishments of agents, specialists, supervisors, administrators, lay leaders, and secretaries.
- Annual scholarship and grant programs that have been established for furthering professional improvement.
- Epsilon Sigma Phi officers meet with the leadership of the Extension professional associations periodically and jointly with the state administration at least annually.
- Retired/Life Epsilon Sigma Phi members are actively involved in all phases of the chapter activities.
- Chapter Board meetings are held regularly and all committee reports submitted promptly.
- An annual statewide chapter meeting with a recognition banquet, initiation of new members and other special features.
- A regular chapter newsletter as one important means of keeping all members informed.
• Active participation in regional and national activities: members on the National ESP Board of Directors and committees, participation in national/regional conferences and professional improvement workshops, and participation in national/regional/state award programs.
• Membership dues in an amount that will financially support an aggressive chapter program.
• Major chapter accomplishments are shared with all other Epsilon Sigma Phi members nationwide through articles submitted for inclusion in the ESP Connection.

STRATEGIES FOR EXCELLENCE
National Epsilon Sigma Phi discussion groups have made the following recommendations that can be a starting point for planning new or renewed directions for chapter planning:

Strategies for Increasing Individual Excellence:
• Be committed to professional excellence.
• Define excellence in personal terms.
• Develop individual "objectives for excellence" and implement.
• Set short-term and long-term professional goals and periodically assess them.
• Develop a plan for continuing professional growth, including academic degree or course work. Actively participate in professional organizations that promote excellence.
• Commit to the standards as well as the goals of Extension and the University system of which we are a part.
• Focus should be on those that are most important.
• Learn to describe Extension (its philosophy, work, and impact) in terms understood and appreciated by the audience being addressed. (For example, community leaders, decision makers).
• Be part of a mentoring system for new staff.
• Build a coalition dedicated to the entire organization--not based on "we" and "they".
• Share knowledge and expertise with other professionals through professional association work, presentations, and written articles/publications.
• Increase evaluation and accountability skills.
• Recommend capable co-workers for positions, committee appointments, elective office, and recognition/awards.
• Positively market Extension--its faculty/staff, programs, potential, and impact.
• Promote not only individual excellence but also excellence through teamwork and interdisciplinary efforts.
• Focus on similarities rather than differences when communicating or working with others.
Strategies for Increasing Organizational Excellence:

- Make certain that those in leadership positions within the University system and other decision makers know about the Cooperative Extension System—who we are, what we do, why we do it, and the impact of our efforts.
- Set standards of excellence for Extension and help faculty and staff define excellence at each level in the organization.
- Help each part of Extension recognize and appreciate the strengths and challenges of other components.
- Provide new staff members with background philosophy of Extension.
- Encourage staff to participate in professional organizations.
- Include Epsilon Sigma Phi and agent association representatives on the program for new staff orientation.
- Help staff set professional goals, prioritize these, and then periodically help them to evaluate progress.
- Establish a plan for marketing Extension—as a whole rather than by program component.
- Identify what we do best and focus on that center of excellence.
- Establish a mentoring system for new faculty/staff by assigning them to work closely with a faculty/staff member whose excellence is recognized.
- Establish internship opportunities.
- Provide opportunities for administrators and faculty/staff to share mutual and individual goals in a non-threatening atmosphere.
- Establish criteria for Extension faculty/staff in the tenure process, based on assigned responsibilities. Share these criteria with administrators.
- Support the increasing development of faculty/staff competency, including encouraging professional development through graduate study and sabbatical leaves.
- Assist those in supervisory levels in developing counselling skills and skill in conducting performance evaluations.
- Strengthen communication and promote an attitude of excellence at all levels.

CRITERIA FOR CHAPTER SELF-EVALUATION

"How well is our chapter of Epsilon Sigma Phi doing in a sincere effort to achieve our present and future goals and objectives?" Chapter officers and/or evaluation committee should ask this question every year. A thorough and objective self-assessment can help your present and future membership interests and make maximum use of limited financial resources.

- The National ESP Board, with valuable input from several Epsilon Sigma Phi members, recommends the following criteria as a guide to follow in this important and challenging task:
- Nature and scope of educational program, e.g., chapter objectives defined in writing, program of activities in published form, newsletter, recognition of member achievement, nature of annual meeting, etc.
• Support of professional improvement program, e.g., scholarships to members, recognizing professional achievements, seminars, workshops, recruiting new staff, orientation training, etc.
• Pattern and scope of chapter organization to actively involve all members in policy decisions, assigning and accepting responsibility, etc.
• Nature and extent of involvement of retired members, e.g., percent of annual members becoming life members, participation as officers and on committees.
• Percent of eligible faculty/staff members that are Epsilon Sigma Phi members.
• Percent of increase in ESP membership in past three years.
• Nature and extent of recognition program, e.g., outstanding life members, achievement of members, Friends of Extension, both state-wide and nationally.
• Membership records up-to-date, dues and other reports submitted promptly.
• Members serve on state/regional/national committees/board, host national recognition banquet, and participate in JCEP Regional Leadership Workshops and National ESP Conference.
• Other pertinent criteria associated with your chapter.
• A weighted score might be assigned to each criterion, as determined by your officers, as a measure of numerical progress each year.
• Most of the criteria listed above coordinate well with the National goals and objectives.
• Take a look at these goals when planning your chapter activities and projects. How well is your chapter of Epsilon Sigma Phi doing in providing services and information to your members? A thorough and objective self-assessment can help your present and future membership feel that Epsilon Sigma Phi makes a valuable contribution to their professional career. CHAPTER RECOGNITION PROGRAM
Membership participation and chapter organization and activities are a strength of Epsilon Sigma Phi. Chapters that provide beneficial opportunities for their members also find strong membership and growth. Two national chapter recognition programs, the Chapter of Merit and the Achievement in Chapter Membership, identify those chapters meeting ESP goals and providing professional development opportunities for members. The programs also serve as an evaluation tool for chapter leadership to learn more about how their chapter is performing.

Chapter of Merit
The Chapter of Merit recognition program was developed by the ESP National Board to provide recognition for those chapters who have put forth an exemplary effort to forward the cause of the Extension system and to provide professional development opportunities for their members.
The Chapter of Merit application is online at www.espnational.org. From the home page top menu bar choose FORMS and then CHAPTER RECOGNITION.
Points are awarded based on how the application questions are answered (see below). The categories evaluated reflect areas identified as important to develop and maintain a strong ESP chapter. The time frame for the ESP Chapter of Merit recognition is March 1 – February 28th of each year. Online applications are due May 1. Points for categories are Platinum Standard (40+) Gold Standard (35-40) Silver Standard (28-34) Bronze Standard (20-27). Chapters are recognized at the National ESP Conference.

POLICY FOR PAYMENT OF NATIONAL ESP DUES

The governance documents for Epsilon Sigma Phi, The Extension Professionals’ Organization, set January 1 through December 31, as the fiscal and membership year for the organization. The fact that chapters may observe other time periods for their fiscal years does not alter the obligation for the chapters to pay their National Epsilon Sigma Phi dues on the basis of the National fiscal and membership year. The use of the online system allows members to pay throughout the year. When properly maintained by the chapter membership chair and/or the chapter treasurer when members pay their dues they are credited for a year of membership. If they choose to prepay for the coming year they can do so and they will be credited for the next year that dues are due.

Since the chapters are allowed to collect dues at their own convenience and since now a member can pay dues online at any time, the national organization needed to establish a date by which dues were due for all chapters. The national organization has established the cutoff for payment of dues to be February 1 of each year. The number of member dues paid by February 1st is used to make the decisions that are based on the number of members in individual chapters. The number of delegates to National Council, the number of recognition awards that are given and the number of votes for regional and national recognition are all determined by the number of paid members as of the February 1st date. Dues will be received until September 1st of each year. Due to the work of preparing for the national conference which is usually held in October, the national office asks that there be no dues collected in the month of September. October 1st is the beginning date for the dues campaign for the following year.

Dues should be submitted for the approaching year in the final quarter of a given year and be completed by February 1st. The national office will remit the chapter portion of dues to the chapters on a monthly basis if the amount due is warranted. Paid-up life time memberships may be submitted at any time.

INFORMATION FOR CHAPTER TREASURER

It is important that the person responsible for membership on the chapter level be trained in the use and management of the online membership program. The national office will conduct training sessions online on proper management of the online membership records for the chapters. This process will include updating the membership information for their chapter which includes the following:

- Archival of unpaid members
• Creating new dues invoices
• Review of member information to insure accuracy
• Notifying the National Office of Members who have passed

For chapters who are unable to use the online system due to the structure of professional organizations in their state (dues are collected as a part of group enrollment for all professional Extension organizations) the following procedure must be followed:

• Chapter membership official will submit a check for all members
• Chapter membership official will submit a list that clearly identifies the members that are included in the dues check
• The national office will one they have been verified will credit the members that were paid for by the chapter in the online system

When memberships are not paid, members cannot receive the benefits Epsilon Sigma Phi offers, nor the communications needed to alert them of opportunities.

Membership Campaign – Information is sent to Chapter Presidents. Chapter Membership Chairs and Chapter Treasurers in November of each year with instructions on how to conduct and report the annual membership information and dues submission.

Correspondence regarding National Dues should be sent to:

NEW MEMBER INITIATION CEREMONY
The following is offered as a suggestion. It is not intended to replace a ceremony that is traditional to your chapter and fits your situation. Adapt/change/add to this ceremony to meet your needs.
Staging the Ceremony:
Ask the new members to come to the front of the room as each is introduced.
A display of Epsilon Sigma Phi symbols is appropriate--such as a banner, or project and image of the ESP logo. Items can be borrowed from the National ESP Office if necessary.

Have a packet of materials assembled in an Epsilon Sigma Phi pocket folder for each new member. Suggested contents: New Member Certificate, Epsilon Sigma Phi brochures, recent issues of newsletter (chapter and national), and the Extension Professionals' Creed.

The Ceremony:
Presider:
Building human capital means increasing the ability to people to reach their full potential through involvement in families, organizations, communities, and the work place. Investments in human capital provide people with the skills, ability, and understanding to function effectively in a complex and changing society. Our role in Epsilon Sigma Phi is to build human capital within an organization in the work place.
The Chapter will provide you with an opportunity to build interpersonal relationships, increase your sense of self-worth, and build creative independence within the organization. Today, we welcome Extension professionals who are qualified to become members of the Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Phi, as well as members who have reinstated their membership.
Speaker 2:
The purpose of our organization is to improve the image of the Extension System, as well as an opportunity to work together as an interdisciplinary team to promote the organization through national and state committees. These committees are concerned with Recognition, Professionalism, Public Issues, Membership, Global Relations, and Life members. They will provide you with an opportunity for service within the organization, at both the chapter and national levels. The official emblem of Epsilon Sigma Phi has a wall of Troy around the outside symbolizing the protection which the organization provides to its members. The "E" on the stem of the key signifies Extension. The Greek letters are interpreted to mean Extension System Veteran. Epsilon stands for Extension, Sigma for Service, and Phi for veteran. As a member, you will no longer be the "new kid on the block". The colors of the organization are green and ivory (cream).

(Optional) I ask to present each candidate with a framed copy of the Extension Professionals’ Creed. Hang this Creed in your office to remind you of the goals we live by as Extension professionals.

Presider:

New members, will you please repeat after me, in unison, this membership pledge:
"I (say your name) / hereby subscribe to and accept the Extension Professionals’ Creed / as an expression of my idealism as an Extension professional. I will endeavor at all times / to conform to it in thought, word and action / and to promote its spirit among those with whom I am associated. I pledge my loyalty / to the members of this organization of Extension professionals / and I will promote the work and goals / in which we are commonly engaged. All this I pledge on my honor."

Speaker 2:

We congratulate you on your professionalism, your desire to build human capital within the ranks, and to reach your full potential through your work and our association with each other. Belonging to the Chapter will help you "make a statement" about the value of our work and appreciation of co-workers, who, by their accomplishments and supportive spirit, renew our energies and faith in the total Extension team. Let us close this ceremony now by welcoming our new members with applause, followed by expressions of personal welcome as the opportunity presents itself.

INSTALLATION OF CHAPTER OFFICERS

(This is a reference to adapt for your specific chapter.)

For this installation ceremony, I would like to use an analogy that compares Epsilon Sigma Phi (ESP) to a tree. We all enjoy the beauty of our trees throughout the year. During the spring and summer, we all enjoy the special colors provided by our trees and during this time of year our trees are enhanced by a variety of sparkling colored lights. I’m sure all of us hope our ESP tree is as beautiful as the trees we admire in the great outdoors.

The ESP officers who will serve next year are surely the main roots and trunk of our tree. They must serve as anchors and be the support that is needed to stabilize the tree itself. We must remember, however, that the trunk of our tree will grow only in proportion to the food supplied to the tree by our officers, committees and members. Each year a new ring of growth is added to a tree. The ring of growth for ESP this year was an excellent one and we hope the rings added in future years would continue to be as healthy.

(Name), as President for the coming year, it will be your responsibility to serve as the taproot of our tree. The taproot must go deep and be strong if our tree is to grow and withstand stormy weather and winds that may come our way. You will have the support of the other roots and trunk to assist you.

(Name), you are to serve as President Elect/Vice President for Chapter Relations. As you use the coming year to prepare for the role of President in the year , your root, like the President’s tap root, must go deep and be a strong anchor for our tree. The other officers will assist you in keeping our tree well nourished, but as one of the main roots, you must continue to hold firm and be a source of sustenance for our tree.

(Name), you will serve as Second Vice President for Professional Development for the coming year. You play a key role in coordinating the annual national conference and helping our members continue to develop and adding to the ring of growth on our tree.

(Names), you will be serving as the vice presidents of our organization. You have positions of great importance in providing an information flow from the national organization to each of the state chapters in your region and providing direction for our national committees. Just as the trunk of the tree conducts water and food to the leaves and supports the branches and their foliage, you must serve as the trunk of the ESP tree and provide consistent flow of information to our members.

{Name}, you will be serving as the Immediate Past President. In this role and as chairman of the Membership Recruitment and Retention Committee, you will be responsible seeing that our tree continues to have viable branches (state chapters) and assist with getting new leaves (our members). Just as the branches support the leaves, we should see our chapters, the branches, as responsible for providing support for our members, the leaves, of our tree.

Each and every leaf on our tree is important. The leaves, as we know, serve a very important place in the life of a tree--absorbing sunlight and transposing the energy into the nutrients the tree needs to grow. This process, called photosynthesis, is the same process that our members carry out when they learn new methods, new ideas and new research, and put this information to use in carrying out the many tasks involved in being a good Extension professional. The leaves of our tree begin as small buds and develop into fully-grown leaves. Some leaves drop off along the way, but most of them remain on the tree to reach full-blown beauty. Some of our members drop their ESP membership, but most of our membership is stationary enough to create a wide area of knowledge and ability. The influence of our ESP members can be likened to the shadow cast by the tree. Often times the shadow is even bigger than the tree itself. I hope the shadow cast by our ESP members will reach all areas and spread its influence over Extension professionals who are not leaves on the tree. The members, like the leaves, are the lifeblood of the organization. I’m sure all of you in this room have a dream of how the ESP tree should look. My challenge for each of the National ESP Officers is to determine the dreams of our members and make a dedicated effort to provide a common sense of direction and a picture of consistency for ESP, as described by Chip Bell yesterday.

As the ESP officers for the coming year, will you dedicate yourself to making this dream possible? If so, please answer I will.

Remember—Keep a green tree in your heart and perhaps the singing birds will come. Written - December 1999 by Patricia Buchanan (IL)

INSTALLATION OF CHAPTER OFFICERS III

Presider:

Past President: ________________________

Leaders come in all sizes, shapes, and ages. Leaders are made, not born. They develop much as a pearl does. Starting with a grain of sand, the pearl adds layer upon layer of luster until it becomes a beautiful gem.

In much the same way, people become leaders, if they have the desire and determination to do so.

All people are unique individuals who, in order to become leaders, must first learn to become personally efficient and able to manage themselves. They accept themselves for what they are, then concentrate on unfolding their personalities into the leaders they want to become.

They develop faith in themselves, in their abilities and goals, in diligent work, and in their ability to create in themselves the persons with whom they will be happy for the rest of their lives.

They develop respect for themselves, others, work, capabilities, and their ability to move out of the shadows in order to strive forward, making small possibilities into great achievements. They develop courage to meet failure without defeat, forge ahead and when the "going gets tough," they stand up for what they believe is right, and to admit mistakes.

They take action by establishing goals, mapping out programs for reaching them, put first things first by setting priorities, do not become a slave to a system but create systems and make them work, and keep pressing ahead until the task is done and the goals reached.

Each of you has indicated that you are willing and ready to serve as a leader of Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Phi.

You are hereby challenged to support and follow the Chapter policies and Constitution and Bylaws of ESP.

If you accept this charge, say (I will). I now declare you duly installed as the officers of Chapter, Epsilon Sigma Phi. Congratulations.
MEMORIAL SERVICE - I

It seems appropriate to think about some of the special gifts we have received from those members of ESP who died during the past year—gifts of friendship, knowledge, and inspiration. We honor the memory of those members who, through their lives, enriched others and us. Their names appear in our annual report and we hope you will take a moment to think of those people who were special to you in your personal experience. The candles with bows tied on the holders represent the gifts we received from these special people.

Let us begin by lighting the first candle in memory of the gift of friendship. For Extension workers, it often happens that our co-workers become close friends. Through long days of work, rides in the car, shared hotel rooms, and service to our profession, our working relationship turns into friendship. Helen Steiner Rice wrote this poem about friendship.

Don’t count your age by the years you’ve known,
But by the friends you’ve made and the kindness sown. For life is not measured by the years that you live, But by the deeds you do, and the joys you give.

We light the second candle in honor of the gift of knowledge gained from these departed friends.

As Extension professionals, they pledged to improve the lives of individuals, families, and communities. Unselfish by nature, innate educators, and people-oriented, they were positive role models influencing decisions, methods, and outcomes. This resulted in the living legacy of an improved environment in their respective―corner of the world. They gave their todays for our tomorrows. To paraphrase Henry Adams, “A great teacher affects eternity. One never knows were his or her influence stops.”

Finally, let us light the third candle in honor of the gift of inspiration we have drawn from these co-workers.

Let us reflect on the ways in which the lives of these fellow workers have touched ours perhaps as a mentor; perhaps as an office co-worker; perhaps as a supervisor; perhaps we shared committee responsibilities; or perhaps they paved the way before we began our work. In some way, we were colleagues and friends and they will remain in our memories. Nancy Gross said, “Memories are a gift from God to those left behind. They bring comfort, joy, and laughter, and they enable us to live forever in the hearts of those we love.”

Please stand for a moment of silent reflection as we celebrate these lives and their special place in our hearts. MOMENT OF SILENCE

Ursala K. LeGuin said, “It is good to have an end to journey toward, but it is the journey that matters in the end.” Let us hope that these dear friends had a good journey. For their being, their inspiration, their friendship and our hope; let our thoughts be a tribute to their memory. You may be seated.
MEMORIAL SERVICE II
We, who are gathered here this day, take a moment to recognize the significance of fellowship with our members who have recently departed. Each has labored diligently to make a contribution to humanity through his or her chosen work in the Extension System. May their efforts serve as an encouragement for us to seek opportunities to assist others in meaningful endeavors. Although their labors are complete, the task of education continues. Our labor is unfinished and calls us as it called to those fellow colleagues whose memories and examples we cherish today. As we read these names, we not only honor the memory of our former colleagues, but perhaps most importantly, we thereby affirm to ourselves the dignity and worth of lives dedicated to enlightenment through educational service. We also reflect on the uplift, the development, and the fulfillment in the lives of those with whom we are privileged to work.

May we, like they, possess those qualities of mind and spirit that contributes to our labor and gives satisfaction from our work. Our records show that the following members of our chapter passed on this year: (Read names of deceased followed by a moment of silence.) Let us honor the memory of these departed colleagues by bringing to the opportunities and tasks of each day, no less dedication and devotion than they brought to theirs.

MEMORIAL SERVICE III
We are gathered together to celebrate with joy and remember with sadness, the builders of Epsilon Sigma Phi who have died during this past year. Their strength is symbolized through the changes we see in nature. We are ever mindful of the contributions each has made to Epsilon Sigma Phi and to Extension education programs.

(Start projecting a series of slides corresponding to the scenes in nature described in the text.) Like the trees, their accomplishments will continue to stand long after our departure. Some of our co-workers worked long years and experienced every season of life, while others departed at an earlier time. Each one made a unique contribution to our clientele, our program, and our administration. We must continue to cherish our past--but be ever mindful of our future as we, too, prepare for the seasons of change within our own lives. Each one of our departed colleagues added the beauty of flowers, buds, and color to our lives.
Let us remember to do the same as we live, with joy, through the seasons of life—in tribute to their memory.

Will you stand with me now during a moment of remembrance for our loved ones, who, as members of Epsilon Sigma Phi, continue to inspire each of us in spirit and beauty.

MEMORIAL SERVICE IV
When great trees fall, rocks on the distant hills shudder, lions hunker down in tall grasses, and even elephants lumber after safety.
When great trees fall in forests, small things recoil into silence, their senses eroded beyond fear.
When great souls die, the air around us becomes light, rare, sterile. We breathe, briefly. Our eyes, briefly, see with hurtful clarity. Our memory, suddenly sharpened, examines, gnaws on kind words unsaid, promised walks never taken.
Great souls die and our reality, bound to them, takes leave of us. Our souls, dependent upon their nature, now shrink, wizened. Our minds, formed and informed by their radiance, fall away. We are not so much maddened as reduced to the unutterable ignorance of dark, cold caves.
And when great souls die, after a period peace blooms, slowly and always irregularly.
Spaces fill with a kind of soothing electric vibration. Our senses, restored, never to be the same, whisper to us. They existed. They existed. We can be. Be and be better. For they existed.

MEMORIAL SERVICE V
We light this candle in celebration of the lives of our colleagues and friends who have died since last we met.
Their philosophy is reflected by that of Alice Freeman Palmer, who was the second president of Wellesley College. It was said of her that she was happiest when she was doing most for others. When she left the college, she gave herself so tirelessly to her self-imposed task of lightening the burdens of the unfortunate that her husband objected. He thought she should give her time and strength to writing books which would make her still more famous. —You are building no monument, he said. —When you are gone, people will ask who you are, and no one will be able to say. —Well, why should they? was the answer. —I am trying to make girls happier and wiser. Books don’t help much toward that. It is people that count. You want to put yourself into people; they touch other people; these, others still, and so you go on working forever.
(John T. Faris)

Through their leadership and teaching, our Extension friends have touched the lives of countless others, and they leave us with a legacy of outstanding contributions, enhancing the lives of individuals and communities. We are truly blessed by their distinguished careers in service to this country.

I’m sure you are probably familiar with the poem about the Bridge Builder, but I would like to share it with you as a fitting tribute to those who have dedicated their lives through Extension.

The Bridge Builder
An old man traveling a lonely highway, came at the evening cold and gray,
To a chasm vast and deep and wide,
Through which was flowing a sullen tide,
The old man crossed in the twilight dim, the sullen tide held no fears for him; But he turned when safe on the other side. And built a bridge to span the tide.
—Old man, cried a fellow pilgrim near, —You’re wasting your time in building here,
Your journey will end with the closing day;
You never again will pass this way. You have crossed the chasm deep and wide, Why build you this bridge at the even-tide? The builder lifted his old gray head;
—Good friend, in the path I have come, he said,
—There followeth after me today
A youth whose feet must pass this way.
This stream which has been as naught to me, To that fair-haired youth may pitfall be;
He, too, must cross in the twilight dim
Good friend, I am building this bridge for him.
(Will Allen Dromgoole)
(Music up. Solo —Wind Beneath My Wingsll Bernadette Watts) (Music under)
Please stand with me in a moment of silence in honor of the lives we remember this day.......................
He has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often and loved much; who has gained the respect of intelligent men and the love of little children; who has filled his niche and accomplished his task; who has left the world better than he found it, whether by an improved poppy, a perfect poem or a rescued soul; who has never lacked appreciation of earth’s bounty or failed to express it; who has looked for the best in others and given the best he had; whose life was an inspiration; whose memory is a benediction. National Conference
(Revised and Approved 10/2016)

NATIONAL ESP CONFERENCE GUIDELINES
The annual National Conference of Epsilon Sigma Phi is the centerpiece national professional development event. The processes of planning, implementing, evaluating and sharing the story about conference’s impact are intended to contribute to the acquisition of leadership skills for members. To achieve continuity between National ESP Conferences and to enhance the efficiency of staging the event, these guidelines are provided as a springboard for planning.

Key members of the National ESP Board (i.e., President Elect who will be president the year of the conference; Professional Development Committee Chair; and Executive Director), the National Professional Development Committee, and the local arrangements committee in the host state(s) comprise the production team. The ESP President Elect, Professional Development Committee Chair, and Local Arrangements Chair serve as conference Co-Chairs. As that team progresses in its work, many opportunities will emerge to move in ways differing from the guidelines.

Purposes of the National ESP Conference:
• Provide professional development for members, including opportunities for members and non-members in the Extension System to make scholarly presentations reporting research and accomplishments of significant programs which contribute to official national initiatives.
• Recognize recipients of national and regional recognition and provide an opportunity for the presentation of the Annual Distinguished Ruby Lecture.
• Conduct the business of the National ESP Council.
• An opportunity for national committees to meet face-to-face.
• Stage a fund-raiser (i.e. Auction) for the Epsilon Sigma Phi National Development Fund.

When and Where:
• The National ESP Conference will be held at a time that does not conflict with religious holidays and other professional association meetings of partner organizations.
• The National ESP Board will set the dates and the site for the National ESP Conference two to three years in advance (typically approved at mid-year board 2 ½ years prior to conference) based on bids submitted from a chapter(s) in the designated region.
• Every attempt should be made to schedule the National ESP Conference within the first two weeks of October.
Local Arrangements Committee:
- The host chapter(s) will appoint a local arrangements chair (or site chair) immediately after bid approval by the ESP National Board. Subsequently the Local Arrangements Committee (site committee) should be selected by the chapter president and the local arrangements chair.
- The local arrangements chair should arrange a site visit for the Executive Director and ESP President Elect, if possible, around 18 months prior to the conference.
- The conference Co-Chairs should meet face-to-face at the National ESP Conference 1 year prior to make plans to proceed with the conference for the next year.
- One member from the Local Arrangements Committee will be appointed to a position on the professional development committee and will serve the year prior to and the year of their National ESP Conference.
- Suggested duties for the Local Arrangements Committee are outlined in the Section on Host Chapter Responsibilities.
- The Local Arrangements Chair or a designee will make the initial contact with the conference site hotel or other facilities. The Board will assign an entity or firm to make final contract negotiation for rooms, meeting space, meal prices, etc.
- The local arrangements chair, the National ESP Executive Director, the ESP President Elect, and the Professional Development Committee Chair must coordinate planning efforts to maintain a good flow of communication.

Professional Development Conference Program:
- The Local Arrangements Committee will collaborate with the national Professional Development Committee to develop plans for the National ESP Conference educational program and distance learning activities (could be either simultaneous or at different times).
- The program proposal should contain a theme, objectives, a schedule, keynote speakers, concurrent sessions, poster session, tours, etc.
- Distance learning opportunities should be explored as a way to serve more members, by providing additional access to the National ESP Conference.

The winner of the Distinguished Service Ruby Recognition will be one of the Conference keynoters at an event conferring a sense of significant honor to the recipient.

Development Fund - Fund Raising Activities:

• During the Conference there should be a major fund-raising activity for the financial benefit of the Epsilon Sigma Phi National Development Fund.

• The host chapter(s) will conduct this activity in close cooperation with the National ESP Board. (If that event is an auction, guidelines appear in the auction section of this document.)

HOST CHAPTER(S) RESPONSIBILITIES - FOR NATIONAL ESP CONFERENCE

The success of the National ESP Conference requires a good working relationship between the local arrangements committee, the National ESP Executive Director, the ESP National President Elect (to be president during conference year), and the Professional Development Committee Chair. The ESP President Elect, Professional Development Chair, and Local Arrangements Chair serve as conference Co-Chairs. The following list is intended to be a guideline for the host chapter. Each conference brings new opportunities and new challenges. The key to a successful conference is the ability of those involved to work together to adapt to situations that arise during the planning process.

- Name a Local Arrangements Chair as soon as possible after the bid to host is accepted. The Local Arrangement Chair or their designee will serve as a Conference Co-Chair. The Executive Director and Co-Chairs will prepare the conference budget to be approved by the National ESP Board. The Co-Chairs will also recommend a registration fee to the National ESP Board for approval.
- The host state should plan to have a member on the Professional Development Committee for the year prior and the year in which the conference is held in the host state. This individual may choose to submit an application to be a regular member of the Professional Development Committee or may choose to serve as an ad hoc member of the committee.
- Conference theme, logo, & keynote speakers - The Local Arrangements Committee takes lead in collaborating with the ESP National Professional Development Committee to develop a conference theme and potential keynote speakers. The final determination of theme and speakers will be approved by the Professional Development Committee and the National ESP Board. These recommendations should be submitted to the National Board early fall (e.g., August 15 with board approval in September for October Conference) 1 year prior to the conference so information can be incorporated into the conference call for proposals and promotion at the National Conference 1 year prior.

- Explore options for financial and in-kind conference support.

- Coordinate with the Professional Development Committee to arrange off site tours and special activities, which will need to be included in the meeting schedule.

- Coordinate arrangements with the host hotel for meeting rooms, etc. with the guidance of the National ESP Executive Director and Conference Co-Chairs. The Local Arrangements Committee should make a least one on-site visit to the Hotel to meet with Hotel personnel well in advance of the conference. The Local Arrangements Chair is the principle individual to communicate with the Hotel management. This will be coordinated with the National ESP Executive Director.

- The National Board has chosen to have an appropriate firm make the final negotiations with the hotel for sleeping rooms, meeting space, meals and AV.

- Arrange for the selection of menus for meals being provided at the conference. Also arrange for decorations at the meals. The meal and decoration arrangements must be approved by the Co-Chairs to insure that selections are within the budget.

- Conference registration will either be handled by the ESP National Office or through the Host State where the conference will be held. The decision as to who does the registration will be mutually agreed upon by the Co-Chairs. If the Local Arrangements Committee handles the registration then it will need to do the following steps.
  - Arrange for a registration/conference management service locally (if available) that will provide the maximum flexibility to include registration by Internet, mail or fax.
  - The maximum flexibility in payment for registrations should also be considered to include; check, credit card and purchase orders. In 2010 80% of the registrations were made using a credit card, the rest were done with check or purchase order.
  - Registration services should allow conference planners to track multiple registration options such as tours and special events.
  - The registration should include printed confirmations, receipts, participant lists, name badges and tickets.
  - All registration activities must be coordinated with the National ESP Executive Director.

- The host state should arrange for volunteers to assist with the registration process on-site. The registration table should be available for onsite registration the afternoon before the conference begins, all day on day 1 and at least in the morning for the remainder of the conference.

- The host state should explore the possibility of including financial and accounting services as a part of the registration/conference management services. In many cases where a university can provide these services, a tax exemption can result in a substantial savings on the food and beverage costs of the conference.
• Arrange for local media coverage of the National ESP Conference and of the keynote speakers.
• Provide hosts for keynote speakers to pick them up airport and to make them feel welcome at the conference.
• Provide access to the information and communication technology and the associated technical staff for distance learning activities related to the professional development program at the National ESP Conference.
• Provide A-V equipment when feasible (check with hotel policy).
• Conduct the Development Fund Auction or a similar fund-raising event for the National Epsilon Sigma Phi Development Fund.
• Make arrangements for local hospitality. A small cost for this can be included in the registration fee if requested.
• Search out opportunities for special entertainment events, attractions, etc., for conference attendees and their guests. Provide information of these opportunities to attendees so they may plan for the open night or for a chapter to do a States Night Out if scheduling allows.
• Provide hospitality items such as signs as to locations of activities, local tourist information, greeters, ticket takers, decorations, etc.
• Arrange for flags (US and State) at the opening session and National ESP Council meeting.
• Arrange for color guard, signing of the national anthem, leading of Pledges of Allegiance and/or other appropriate flag ceremony at the opening general session.
• Arrange for entertainment at the Recognition Banquet. The entertainment should be during the meal.
• Local Arrangements Chair should meet face-to-face with the Executive Director and other Co-Chairs at the National ESP Conference the year before the state actually hosts the event.
• The host state should view the National ESP Conference as a special professional development opportunity for the host state as well as surrounding states and should promote maximum participation from state and regional Epsilon Sigma Phi members and non-members.
• The host state will need to work with the Professional Development Committee to secure technology to be used in creating distance-learning opportunities for members who are unable to attend the meeting. Such distance-learning opportunities must be coordinated by the host state, as needed, to complement the conference program.
• The host state should invite the National ESP Board to hold their mid-year meeting in the host state prior to the conference. This will provide an opportunity to meet with the Local Arrangements committee to foster a good working relationship with the board which is important to having a successful conference.
• To encourage the promotion of the program by the host state through publicity and in the activities provided to attendees, the profits of the conference will be divided with 25% returning to the host state and 75% being retained by the National ESP Organization.
• The host chapter should plan for between $500 and $1000 of expenses. Depending on the creativity of the host chapter many of these expenses can be in kind contributions or donations. The costs incurred would be items such as: table decorations at the awards banquet and Ruby Luncheon; printing of the conference program, Ruby Luncheon program and awards banquet program.

• Plan a Life Member program during the National ESP Conference. A life member program could include tours, classes or workshops that would appeal to our life members.

HOST CHAPTER RESPONSIBILITIES - NATIONAL RECOGNITION BANQUET

• This activity should be coordinated closely with the National ESP Executive Director at the National Office.

• Provide table decorations as part of Conference budget.

• Order a floral piece for the head table. If chapters wish to honor recognition recipients with corsages/boutonnieres, it will be the responsibility of the chapter to cover this expense. The Local Arrangements Committee will provide the name of a local florist and help facilitate this process.

• Invite local guests from the University and the Extension System of the host state(s). They are to be the guests of the hosts(s).

• The Local Arrangements Committee will be responsible for the menu selection in consultation with the National ESP Office.

• The National ESP Board supports the attendance of a photographer in exchange for taking of pictures at all conference functions including the Recognition Banquet. Digital copies of photographs will be available on the ESP website after the conference.

• Banquet seating will be prepared by the National ESP Executive Director. The National Friends of Extension and National ESP Board plus guests will have reserved seating. If at all possible, the president of the Chapter nominating the Friend of Extension recipients should be seated with the recipient.

• Arrange for light entertainment during the meal.

• The National ESP Executive Director and the National ESP Board will handle all of the details of preparing and presenting the plaques and certificates.

• If the new officers are installed at the Banquet, the National ESP Board will handle the installation of the new board.

HOST CHAPTER RESPONSIBILITIES - DEVELOPMENT FUND AUCTION

• Fund raising for a valued cause and fun are a great match. The manner in which this auction is conducted should create an atmosphere of fun and goodwill and generate significant funds to support Epsilon Sigma Phi.

• Appoint a chairperson from the host chapter(s) or from a chapter willing to accept the responsibility to manage the Development Fund Auction.

• The auction chairperson should begin contacting state chapter presidents early in the year to solicit items to be donated by Chapters and/or members.

• The host chapter will conduct the auction. They may elect to stage a hospitality event in conjunction with the auction. Arrange for a cash bar.
• Conducting the auction offers opportunity to involve the JCEP partner organizations in the host state.
• Arrange for auctioneers (professional or professional —want-a-bees). The more the auctioneers know about the organization and its members, the more fun the —chatter is likely to be. The host state should try to secure an auctioneer(s) as a local in-kind contribution. If that is not possible, anticipated expenses should be included in the budget.
• Donated items will be placed in the silent or the live auction. This determination is made by the host chapter chair. The goal is to have about 30-40 quality items in the live auction. It is helpful to have the silent auction items displayed by midafternoon on the day of the auction. Items for the live auction should be displayed during the reception and meal time.
• The host chapter should plan to accept the items, catalog the items including who donated the item, the value of the item.
• During the auction the host chapter should plan to collect information that includes the sale price of the item, who purchased the item and provide buyers with an itemized duplicate sales receipt that contains all items purchased and is totaled for presentation to the cashier for collection of payment for items purchased.
• The host chapter should provide the tellers, ring personnel to catch bids, bidder number sign-up and collect the revenue immediately following the sale.
• When possible use as many different options for payment as possible such as: cash, check or credit card. (The National ESP Board has entered into an agreement which has made the use of a credit card available to be used at the discretion of the National ESP Board for such uses). Generally, if prior arrangements are made the Resource Development Committee will be responsible to collect money from the sales and make the necessary deposits of money collected.

Budget Worksheet for National ESP Conference
Budget categories are generic and can be expanded to fit individual conference needs. It is suggested that the categories be transferred that the categories be put into an Excel worksheet file. The National Office has developed a worksheet that works quite well to develop a budget. Revenue items will need to reflect three levels of payment – early-bird; regular; and late. The budget should be in the final stage or close to it for approval by the National Board no later than April 1st the year of the conference.

Officer Initiation Used for Installation of National Officers II

(Written by Bob Ohlensehlen, Past National ESP President and National Executive Director)

Every great organization needs to have great leaders who are dedicated to the principles and mission of the organization.

Our Vision Statement is that Epsilon Sigma Phi leads the Extension System in promoting and supporting professionalism in Extension.

And as you know the mission of our organization is that Epsilon Sigma Phi is dedicated to fostering standards of excellence in the Extension System and developing the Extension profession and professional.

As incoming officers of an organization that professes to "Lead the Extension System in promoting and supporting professionalism in Extension" it will be your job to identify opportunities, develop new means of serving our members and to implement ways of serving our members so that as an organization we continue to be relevant and crucial in equipping our members to be able to accomplish our vision and meeting our mission.

, as the President of Epsilon Sigma Phi for 2011-2012 you are responsible for establishing the goals and objectives for our organization for the upcoming year. You will be looked up to by all of the Board members to provide guidance and leadership to help our organization to “Be All We Can Be.” We look to you to make our organization —“The preferred Extension professional organization.” You also have the task of trying to find a direction that will help the organization in meeting the diverse needs of all of the members of our organization. You will have the responsibility to provide oversight and direction for all aspects of the organization. You must keep the car on the road and moving strongly forward. As our President and representative on the JCEP Board you will provide leadership to the ESP JCEP team to hold high our ideals as you represent us on JCEP. You have a tremendous responsibility, but you have been identified as one who is up to the task.
______________, as the President-elect you are responsible to provide the leadership to develop a national conference program for next year that will provide opportunities for our members to improve their skills and to add new skills to their skill sets so that they may take the next step toward achieving our mission of fostering the standards of excellence in Extension work. You have the fresh ideas and leadership skills to take us to a new level in providing professional development opportunities for all of our members not only at our National Conference but throughout the year. Use your ideas to explore new ways of increasing our value and service to our members in meeting their professional development needs. Use your knowledge and skills to accomplish the task before you.

______________, as you embark on the first phase of a four year term on the ESP Executive Board and as you serve during the upcoming year as the Chair of the Chapter Relations Committee and as Chair of the Marketing Committee you have just accepted an important task. Your responsibilities as Chapter Relations Chair will provide you a challenge to work with the Chapter leadership to ensure that they are supported by the National Board and National Office and that the national board establishes a line of communication that flows both ways to help insure the success of each of our chapters.

I challenge you to work with the Regional Vice Presidents in the strengthening of each chapter and particularly those who are struggling to meet the needs of both their annual and life members. As marketing committee Chair your responsibilities will include discovering new ways of informing our members of the value of their organization as well as making sure our "Brand" is known throughout all of Extension as the Extension Professional's Organization. Observe and learn as the experiences you have in the next year will be extremely valuable to you in the years to come.

______________, as the _________ Region Vice President and the Public Issues Chair you are responsible for building and strengthening political and public support for Extension through consistent and targeted communication with local, state and federal decision makers and agencies to educate them on the accomplishments and value of Extension. You will also be responsible to educate and inform Epsilon Sigma Phi members about public policy and legislative issues affecting Extension programs and staff. Your participation on the committee and your dedication as an emeritus Extension Professional have served you well for this position.

______________, as the _________ Region Vice President and Public Issues Chair you are responsible to make contact and promote affiliations between ESP and international professionals. Your committee is to provide suggestions for strengthening Extension's International programming, to promote international enthusiasm within state ESP Chapters and the national ESP organization. Your committee will be responsible to help ESP members who are interested, to find sources for international Extension opportunities and to assist chapters in recognizing international work done by ESP members. Your skills are well suited for you to succeed at this challenging task.
__________, as the _________ Region Vice President and the Chair of Scholarships, Grants and Recognition you have an extremely challenging task. You will be responsible to oversee the collecting, evaluation and awarding of the professional development scholarships and recognition of individuals and teams who have done exemplary work within the Extension System. The second half of our vision to foster excellence in Extension work is to recognize those who have reached that pinnacle. Your job is to see that that happens. I know that you are ready, willing and capable in meeting the task.

__________, as the ___________ Regional Vice President and the Resource Development and Management Chair you face two challenging tasks. One of the keys to a strong organization is to have a strong financial base. Your task includes oversight of the finances of our organization for both the day to day operation of ESP and the oversight and management of the Development Fund. The financing of the day to day operation is critical to the success of the organization in providing service to our members. The development fund provides the resources for professional development scholarships as well as the funding of recognition of outstanding members. You have the training and skills to handle these responsibilities with distinction. We are fortunate that you are willing to accept the role of filling the final year of the position and that you are bringing a wealth of previous experience with you.

_______, ________,_______and _____, I have described your responsibilities as committee chairs, but I have saved your most important responsibility for last. First of all you are the link between the National ESP Board and the leadership of the chapters in your. The chapters are the most critical part of the ESP organization. Without strong chapters there is little need for a National Organization. Your challenge is to continue the work you have begun this past year within your Region to help inform, assist and to inspire the chapter leaders to do the job which they have agreed to perform. When your region’s chapters have been successful in meeting the needs of their members, you all have been successful in meeting your responsibilities as a Regional Vice President.

Finally, ____________, you have now reached a point for some well-deserved rest. You have been an outstanding example for all to follow this past year as our President. Your work is not yet finished. The new Special Life Member Committee is beginning its part in ESP history. As the first chair of this committee you will have the responsibility to develop the committee’s mission so that it will support the ESP Mission and Vision and provide new experiences and opportunities for our Life Members. Also, during this upcoming year you will be expected to serve as our mentor and leader, providing wisdom that is sage with the experiences you have gained over the past three years you have served. We all look to you as our mentor. If we will but follow the path you have set for us we will be able to take that step to the next level. Before you get too comfortable as you pass the yoke of leadership to Justen, remember that all of the board continues to look to you to help lead the way to making Epsilon Sigma Phi’s role critical to the continued success of the Extension System.
I now declare all of you as being duly installed as officers and National Board members of Epsilon Sigma Phi for 2011-2012.

ESP POLICIES

Introduction
Policies are established by the National ESP Board to facilitate the orderly conduct of business by Epsilon Sigma Phi on behalf of its members. Policies may be modified at any Board Meeting by a majority vote of the National ESP Board where a quorum is present. (Passed by National ESP Board, November 8, 2005)

ESP Executive Board
The ESP Executive Board shall consist of the Executive Committee members – President, President Elect, Second Vice President, Past President and the National ESP Executive Director (Ex Officio). The purpose of the Executive Board shall be to address issues that require immediate attention that would not allow for convening the entire Board. The intent of the function of the Executive Board shall at no time be to exclude the remaining members of the Board.

Board Meetings
The mid-year National ESP Board Meeting will be held at a convenient time with the Epsilon Sigma Phi President determining and arranging for the meeting place and accommodations, doing whatever is necessary to keep costs at a minimum. Once arrangements are made the National ESP Executive Director signs the contract and is responsible for payment. National ESP Board Meetings are held prior to and following, at the same location as, the National ESP Conference.

Conference Calls
The National ESP Board will schedule conference calls as deemed necessary to carry out the immediate business and/or concerns of Epsilon Sigma Phi. Conference calls may be necessary to carry on the business of National ESP Committees. The calls should be arranged by the appropriate Vice President, in conjunction with the National ESP Executive Director. All conference calls will have a written agenda sent to the National President and committee members at least two weeks prior to the conference call.

Date to Determine Number of Voting Delegates
The number of voting delegates per chapter and for the total group of members-at-large will be determined on February 1 of each year based on membership dues paid.

Fiscal
The ultimate authority for expenditures shall be by the approval of the National ESP Board. The National ESP Executive Director, however, receives and disburses all funds; maintains financial accounts and records for operational funds and develops and manages the operating budget. (approved by the National ESP Council. (Revision, November 8, 2005)

There shall be three signatures approved (National ESP Executive Director, his/her assistant, and the President) on the operating funds account; and two on the investment funds accounts. Checks issued on these accounts shall require two signatures and a third-party reconciliation of the account. (Passed by action of the National ESP Board, December 3, 2000.)

The National ESP Executive Director arranges for the annual financial review by the Resource Development and Management Committee for the first three years of a four-year cycle with the review being done by a qualified accountant in the fourth year or at any time there is a change in Executive Directors prior to the National ESP Council Meeting. Books are to be closed on December 31.

The annual financial review report is provided to the National ESP Board and the membership at the National ESP Council Meeting.

The National ESP Executive Director also makes official and legal reports as required by IRS. Tax reporting will be done by a qualified accounting firm with information provided by the Executive Director. Tax returns are due to IRS by May 15th of each year.

Epsilon Sigma Phi shall have a credit card in the name of Epsilon Sigma Phi and held in the possession of the National ESP Executive Director for use at his/her discretion regarding Epsilon Sigma Phi business only. The charge(s) should be paid as soon as possible without any finance charges accrued.

The National ESP Executive Director should arrange for Dishonest Employee insurance and casualty insurance as deemed necessary by the National ESP Board. He/she will be responsible for monitoring renewal dates. (Passed by the National ESP Council, October 15, 2010)

The ESP national budget increase will be no more than 10% from one year to the next. (Passed by the National ESP Board, November 8, 2006)

Budget requests that will impact the next annual budget will be submitted no later than the mid-year board meeting of the current year.

During a current budget year, the board may approve spending on scholarships and grants that exceeds the number and amount described in the handbook. Decisions to award additional scholarships and grants should be made based on a recommendation from the SGR Committee and funding available. (Passed by the National ESP Board, November 8, 2006 Amended June 5, 2014)

ESP Financial Holdings, Investment, and Development Fund Policies (Revised 7/2016)

ESP Financial Holdings

Financial resources for ESP are held in two groups of funds: (1) Organizational fund and (2) Development fund. Epsilon Sigma Phi, Inc. is an exempt organization as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
ESP Organizational Fund
The primary function of the Organization Fund (operating funds) of the National Epsilon Sigma Phi is to hold operating funds of the corporation in both investments accounts and as cash to support the daily operation of the corporation. The National Board determines spending from the Organizational Fund based on current needs and aligned with an annual budget approved by the National Council. Sufficient funds to cover one year of operating costs should be held in readily liquid accounts. Other funds may be placed in longer-term investments to provide income for operating expenses or reinvestment for growth, as determined by the National Board. The calendar year serves as the ESP fiscal year.

ESP Development Fund
The primary function of the Development Fund of the National Epsilon Sigma Phi is to hold both endowed invested funds (in both restricted and non-restricted investment accounts) and limited cash as charitable assets and to distribute income in accordance with the Spending Policy in support of mini-grants, scholarships, professional recognition, and management expenses to support the professional development mission of ESP as directed by the National Board. The National ESP Council took steps in 1985 to establish a National Epsilon Sigma Phi Foundation to foster even greater emphasis on "Partnership in Professional Excellence" among ESP members and the Cooperative Extension System as a whole.

Epsilon Sigma Phi's most valuable asset is the quality of the Extension faculty/staff dedicated to serving people across the nation. Membership dues provide a base of financial support, within the chapters and nationally, for the ongoing operations of our organization. But, private tax-exempt contributions are necessary to provide an extra margin of excellence. After receiving legal counsel in 2002, the fund name of Foundation was dropped and Development Fund was determined to be the more appropriate designation.

Epsilon Sigma Phi has a commitment to future excellence through the Development Fund to:

- Provide scholarships for professional development and graduate study to promote teaching and research excellence to members.
- Provide grants to chapters for professional development programs.
- Recognize and reward Extension professionals who have demonstrated outstanding educational competencies, professionalism, and programming.
- Publish the latest literature on professionalism and professional development opportunities for Extension faculty/staff.
- Prepare resource materials that chapters can use to emphasize professionalism to prospective members.
- Update and maintain a record of Epsilon Sigma Phi history and encourage chapters to implement Extension history projects.
Annual Development Fund campaign years begin on September 1 and run through August 31 of the following year with all collections for the current campaign year held in the bank account until August 31st when they are deposited to the Patten and Patten account. At the same time, a draft is made on the Patten and Patten account for the annual funds as specified in the Development Fund budget for the current budget year.

The Scholarship Auction at the National ESP Conference generates revenue for the Development Fund. Half of the auction proceeds go to the Development Fund and half to the Organizational Fund.

Investment Policy
Approved National Board -- August 12, 2010, Amended in August 2012

Investment Policy for Epsilon Sigma Phi, Inc.

Purpose
The purpose of the investment policy is to provide a clear understanding of the investment policy, guidelines, and objectives for the total portfolios of both the Development Fund and Organization Fund of National Epsilon Sigma Phi (ESP) for the Resource Development and Management Committee (RD&M), National Board, investment advisors, potential donors, and others.

This policy provides a governing basis for the management and disposition of liquid assets (including cash and non-cash items) held as investments by National Epsilon Sigma Phi, Inc.

The following guidelines have been set forth to give the fund manager(s) an overview of the general investment philosophy and orientation of the RD&M responsible for the funds, and to provide prospective donors information about the investment of funds in the RD&M care. The intent is to give broad direction allowing for the flexibility necessary for the fund managers to successfully implement their investment strategy.

The RD&M has allocated to the Patten & Patten, Inc. responsibility for implementing these guidelines.

Investment Objectives
The principle objectives of both funds' investment programs shall be:
- Preservation of capital on an absolute basis
- Generation of income to fulfil charitable purposes of Epsilon Sigma Phi
- Growth of asset value at a rate greater than inflation (as measured by the Consumer Price Index)
- Provide market (S&P 500) equivalent income

Achieving these objectives will require assuming a moderate level of risk, a long-term investment horizon and diversification among assets. The funds will be invested to maximize total return (capital appreciation, interest and dividend income) consistent with a prudent level of risk.
Funding of Withdrawals/ Distributions
The ESP Organizational Fund has requirements and expectations for part of the funds to be periodically withdrawn for programs and expenses. Resultant periodic cash requirements will fluctuate somewhat but should usually be able to be deferred for a 30-day period.

The ESP Development Fund has requirements and expectations for periodic withdrawals for programs and expenses. Resultant periodic cash requirements will fluctuate somewhat but should usually be able to be deferred for a 30-day period. The investment manager(s) will be made aware of these requirements and will be responsible for employing a strategy to meet these needs. The National Board anticipates that the funds will be provided from cash and cash equivalents and investment income earnings. The principal is endowed and cannot be spent; organization funds will be used to make up unmet needs.

Asset Allocation
The Resource Development and Management Committee and National Board have established the following asset allocation guidelines. Any significant deviations from the established allocations will require approval upon the recommendation of the Investment Manager. Those deviations of no more than 10% points above or below the established range would be in response to “non-normal” market or economic conditions that would be considered temporary or short term. The Chair of Resources Development and Management Committee with approval of the National Board would grant the Investment Manager sufficient latitude to preserve the capital of the funds.

Cash and Equivalents – (Development Fund 0 - 10% of assets) (Organizational Fund 10 - 40% of assets) Short-term investments shall consist of obligations of the U.S. Government, U.S. Agencies and corporate issues rated A or better by one-year maturity or less, and the two highest grades of commercial paper. Additionally, a money market fund or comparable investment vehicle with like investments may be used.

Fixed Income – (Development Fund 30 - 70% of assets) (Organization Fund 30 - 50% of assets) The quality of the fixed income securities shall not be rated less than “A” by Moody’s or Standard and Poor’s. Maximum ownership of any one issue, exclusive of U.S. Government issues shall be (15)% of the fixed income portfolio at cost. Private placements or other restricted securities shall not comprise more than (10)% of the fixed income portfolio cost. Cash positions should conform to investments described in section A.

Equities – (Development Fund 30 -70% of assets) (Organization Fund 30 – 50% of assets) The portfolio may hold common stocks publicly traded on U.S. Exchanges, NASDAQ listed stocks and securities convertible into such stocks. Equity investments in any major sector classification shall not exceed (20%) of the market value of the total equity portfolio. Equity investments in any single issue shall not exceed (7%) of the equity portfolio at market value. Cash positions should conform to investments described in section A.

Return Objectives/ Loss Limits
Both the Development Fund and Organization Fund annual total return objective for the total portfolio is an absolute return net after all expenses of at least 7% of the beginning of year asset value adjusted for deposits and withdrawals. Returns will be measured over a five-year period.

Although investment objectives are long term, performance and activities of the manager(s) will be evaluated at least on an annual basis. Standards of performance will include the best of:
- Expected minimum net total return (appreciation plus income) exceeding inflation by 4% for equities and (2)% for fixed income over a five-year period.
- Expected total return compared to the market to equal or exceed an applicable equity or fixed income index.
- Rank in the top half of similar “style” equity and fixed income managers in a database each calendar year.
- Losses over a five-year period should be limited to 15% of the beginning value or maximum value; whichever is greater, in the equity portfolio and (5%) in the fixed income portfolio.

Evaluation and Performance Criteria
Investment managers can expect to be evaluated using both absolute and relative criteria. Two or more of the following relative performance benchmarks will be used to evaluate overall performance in each area of portfolio allocation. Manager comments, on which are the most appropriate index to use in measuring the manager's performance, are welcome. Comparisons will be made at least annually.

Equities:
- S&P 500 composite index – largest 500 companies, weighted by capitalization
- Wilshire 5000 index – 5,000 companies, weighted by capitalization
- Other managers with a similar investment style
- Any other equity performance index with component issues similar to those of the equity portfolio.

Fixed Income:
- Lehman Brothers intermediate government/corporate bond index – average maturity 4-5 years
- Other managers with similar investment style
- Any other fixed income performance index of issues with maturity and quality similar to the fixed income portfolio.

Inflation:
Consumer Price Index (CPI) The Resource Development and Management Committee and National Board may employ a professional investment advisor or consultant to perform ongoing independent investment performance analysis.

Prohibited Transactions
Investment activities in the following are prohibited:
- Margin purchases
- Derivatives and hedge funds
- Private placements or other restricted securities
- Commodities (such as wheat, corn, cattle etc, excludes commodities such as gold)
- Foreign issues, unless traded on U.S. Exchanges or markets

Communication and Review
Monthly statements of activity are to be forwarded to the ESP Executive Director, Chair of Resource Development and Management Committee and the investment advisor. Otherwise statements are to be forwarded quarterly.

Investment manager(s) should expect to provide annual or semi-annual portfolio presentations to Epsilon Sigma Phi, which will include reports of portfolio status, returns, and performance comparisons to appropriate benchmarks, economic outlook, investment strategy and other related matters, which would be of interest to the ESP Board. Ongoing communication by phone, letter or personal consultation will be required as deemed necessary by the investment advisor and/or the ESP Executive Director. The Resource Development and Management Committee and National Board place great trust in and emphasis on the investment strategy employed by the fund’s managers. Any material changes to or deviations from a manager’s approach must be communicated and justified to the ESP Executive Director and the Chair of the Resource Development and Management Committee. ESP requires the managers to communicate any significant changes in management or investment personnel immediately.

Plan Review
The managers shall be responsible for reviewing these guidelines with the ESP at least annually to assure that they remain valid and relevant. Any recommendations as to changes should be submitted in writing to the Chair of the Resource Development and Management Committee and the Executive Director of the National ESP.

ESP Development Fund Spending Policy (Adopted 9/1/2011)

Spending Policy
All contributions will be recorded as principle and added to the corpus (endowed principle).
The annual amount available from the Development Fund is based on our spending policy. The standard spending policy rate is 5%. The annual amount is determined by applying the spending policy rate to the fund’s twelve quarter average market value of its investments as of March 30th of the prior year. The fifty percent (50%) of the National Conference Auction proceeds designated for the Development Funds will be used to meet the annual obligations of the Development Fund distribution. At the end of each fiscal year the Resource Development and Management Committee will make a recommendation on the remaining balance of the annual distribution per the disposition of these funds. Priority consideration should be given to the addition of these remaining funds to the Development Fund principle. Appropriate uses of the annual distribution are described above in ESP Financial Holdings, Section 1.

ESP Development Fund Named Donations (Approved by ESP National Board 5/2015)

National Epsilon Sigma Phi has an ongoing ESP Key Contributor program in which contributions can be made over many years and the accumulative total determines the Key Recognition Level in which one is recognized.

An ESP Named Donation Program starts July 1, 2015 which will allow an individual or chapter to “name” an award after a person (or chapter) and state the purpose for which a donation of $25,000 or more is given.

Pledges can be made for payment over 5 years. Naming goes into effect and the award is officially established when the corpus (principal) is fully paid. An accumulated ESP Key contributor has the option to convert an accumulated donation into a named donation when $25,000 or more has been received according to ESP records.

A named donation can be restricted or unrestricted. A restricted account would give the donor spending authority to establish the name and purpose for which the donation will be used with the agreement of the ESP Board, and its appropriate national committee(s). An unrestricted account would give the ESP Board with input from the appropriate ESP national committee spending authority on the donation.

ESP Development Fund investment policy and spending policy will be applied to all named funds. Named funds will be tracked as sub-funds in the ESP Development Fund. Records will be kept on each named award to track market value and expenditures. This record is to be available for review by the donor and members.
